CQC Registration

The majority of health and social care providers must be registered with the Care Quality Commission (or equivalent regulator for Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland) before they can deliver services to patients and service users. Preparing for registration can be a long and extremely time consuming process, particularly for small and medium sized providers who do not have the internal resource to undertake such a large task.

This is where Words Worth Reading Ltd steps in. We take full control of the CQC registration process; completing application forms, creating or updating the 100+ evidentiary documents required for registration, supporting with facility preparation and undertaking mock Registered Manager interviews.

What are the key benefits of using this service?

- We have been recommended as a successful CQC support service by the CQC itself.
- We have a 100% success rate in terms of achieving registration for all of our clients.
- As a creative organization, we bring presentation and design awareness to all policies and procedural documents.
