

Dublin Book Launch

The Words Worth Reading team have had yet another very busy month. Following the success of the London launch of Samantha Pearce's latest children's book 'Catherina and the Incredible Stripy Pants'; the team travelled to Dublin to hold a second launch party at the Morrison Hotel. Writers from local writing groups and representatives from some of the Dublin libraries were just some of the guests who joined us to celebrate the book's launch.

The evening was an astounding success with everyone eager to take home a copy of the book, which was accompanied by a limited edition interactive CD. We would like to extend a big thank you to all who attended and made the event such a success!

Fun Run Fun!

On Sunday 7th June 2009 seven members of the Words Worth Reading Team embarked upon the 3km Barking and Dagenham Fun Run having been sponsored by family and friends to help raise money for Oxfam. Special praise should go to Samantha Pearce and Sam Bolton who were the first Words Worth Reading runners to finish following a really strong race. Every one of our runners completed the course and although their running was fantastic, their sense of direction left a lot to be desired!

As a result of their hard efforts Words Worth Reading Ltd. raised an impressive £305 for Oxfam. Congratulations to all who took part!
